

A Colorful Easter Story

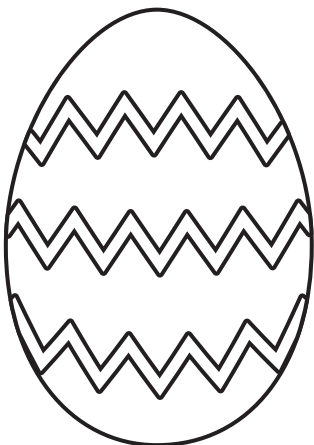

Brought to you by TheLaughingGrandma.com

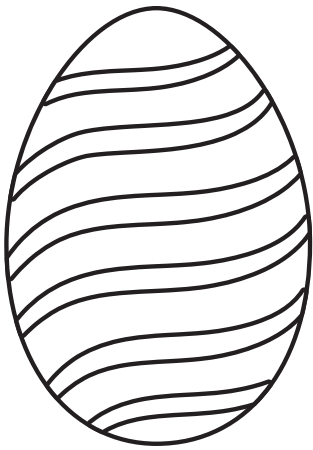

God's home in Heaven is happy all the time and covered with shiny jewels and streets of gold.

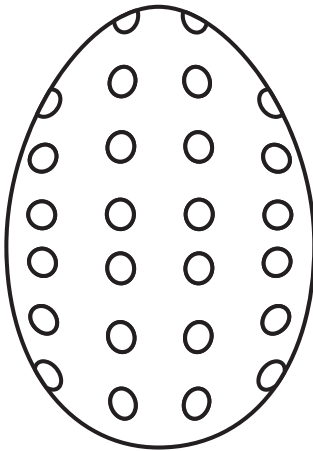

God made me and He is my King. He wants me to be His friend and to live in Heaven someday.

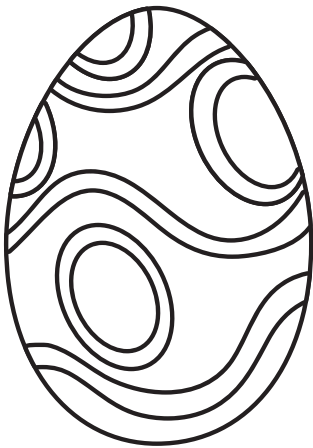

Sin hurts my heart and makes God unhappy. It even stops me from going to Heaven.

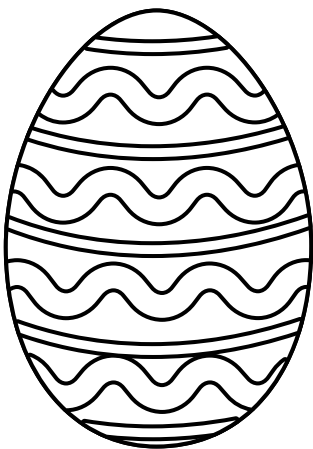

God's love for me is bigger than the sky. It's so big that He sent His son Jesus to save me.

Jesus never sinned so when He died, His blood had the power to take away the punishment for my sin.

Jesus came back to life and lives in Heaven! He will make my heart clean when I ask Him to wash away my sin.

God will help me to grow strong and wise until I live with Him someday, forever in Heaven!
